Unsharp Mask is a Paint.NET plugin that enables you to sharpen, sharpen, and sharpen some more until your photos are perfect. Installing the Paint.NET plugin is easy. Just move the DLL files to the Paint.NET install directory, open Paint.NET and you can access the effect from the Photo tab. You can choose from three sharpening types: Basic, Fast, and High. If you want to use a specific type, choose the shape you want to use, and press enter. If you choose High, you can choose from four different blur settings. A slider and numerical values are available to adjust, as well as the luminance only option. When you want to choose a blur radius, just move the slider to the required value. The Fast render mode is available. Zoom in and out, and save the photo. You can now see the before and after preview of the photo. This preview is also available from the Photo tab. When you apply the Unsharp Mask filter, the sharpening will appear on all edges of the photo. You can set the brightness and contrast level of the photo manually. You can set the Unsharp Mask sharpening radius and threshold, and even choose the Sharpening type. You can choose to only sharpen the Luminance or the overall brightness of the photo. You can set the Fast rendering mode or the sharpening threshold. You can choose to restore the photo to the original settings. You can also use it to soften edges that are blurry and unclear. If you apply Unsharp Mask first, and then Soften, the Soften effect will be applied to the photo. New user: Select, Hide Main Panel, and use the Unsharp Mask to enhance your photos. Welsh rugby star James Hook has been fined £24,000 by a French court after admitting he had sex with a teenager. Welsh star James Hook has been fined £24,000 by a French court after admitting having sex with a teenager. The former Wales and British and Irish Lions hooker was handed the sentence on Thursday following an investigation by police in Lorient and Manche. The 35-year-old, who has played for Wales, Western Samoa and Gloucester Rugby, was initially arrested on October 23 and was then charged on March 12. French police and magistrates determined that Hook had committed "counselling sexual assault" against a minor. The star forward spent a month in custody and will serve half of his sentence in prison. He has been ordered to do 200 hours of community service in line with the terms of his sentence. Hook also agreed to make a €500 (£428) donation to the non-profit organisation which helps child sex victims. A statement on the Lorient court website said: "The defendant was sentenced to a fine of €3,500 and a term of two years in prison with the provision of 200 hours of community service and a donation to a charity of €500. "He was also obliged to write a book about his experience and to do 200 hours of community service in his hometown." The former Wales hooker was also banned from consuming alcohol for a year, which will have to be completed during his time in prison. Lorient prosecutors said Hook's victim was a "friendly relationship"
